Review

"In Reading the Zohar, Giller (University of Judaism, CA), has succeeded in producing a work that will engage nonacademic readers while still making a substantial contribution to the scholarly study of Jewish mysticism."--Choice

"Pinchas Giller...has an exquisite mastery of both primary and secondary materials in the study of Kabbalah in general, and Zohar in particular....As Reading the Zohar unfolds, the centuries of ideological accretions are slowly separated out, and the reader comes to understand how Jewish mystical ideas developed over time and what implications those concepts had inside Jewish intellectual life. Yet, for all his mastery of academic texts, Giller writes plainly and clearly."--The Jewish Journal of Greater Los Angeles

Great formatting but look at the price

By Brian Warner

Yet ANOTHER publisher that SHOULD be ashamed of themselves. This time we have an amazingly good format of a book. It's sweet. Check out the preview. Italics, bold... looks great. BUT look at the price. $86???. For an EBOOK? I'd pay that for a physical book for resale value... but NOT an ebook. who would? Consider that the physical hardback is selling for less: $81.

What is wrong with this publisher? Protest.

Thank God Amazon allowed a refund on my mistaken purchase of the product.
