Superb!

By pbiela

This is fast paced, easy reading with some great set pieces and an amazing twist.

Remission Praxis is for mature readers, I think the 'hard hitting' part of the description alludes to this, as it has a brutal and shocking scene on the disc that I found harrowing to read. The book is quite different to Redemption Protocol in that it plunges right in. On balance, I think I prefer the second book to the first, though it is a close call. I find the end an amazing idea, I am fascinated to see how the author handles it. The consciousness idea is again flirted with and I get the feeling this will become more central as the series goes on, which I would like to see.

It's a superb addition to what I have increasingly high hopes for as a series.

Couldn't put it down!

By Amazon Customer

Having really enjoyed Redemption Protocol I was looking forward to Freeman's next offering with my fingers crossed that the standard of first book would be maintained. Happily this is the case with Remission Praxis proving a worthy sequel.

As Freeman develops the characters further I find Weaver particularly endearing and really enjoyed the humorous exchanges between her and Havoc as their relationship develops. However my favorite character is the wonderful ship Commander O'Brien!

The ending seemed to come much too soon and has left me in a real state of suspense. I have no idea where this series is heading but I am looking forward to finding out!

Action Packed Adventure

By Dream Catcher

I thoroughly enjoyed the author's cinematic style and found myself immersed in the story. The pace is fast and exciting. I was unsure where the author was going to take things after Redemption Protocol, but I was not disappointed, we dive right in where we left off with Havoc, Weaver and Tyburn and the approaching Diss! Some of the subject matter makes uncomfortable reading, but as with Redemption Protocol, it is honestly conveyed and proves to be essential as the story unfolds. I love Weaver and O'Brien and grew to hate Whittenhorn. The end is quite startling, I couldn't quite believe it. This book packs in a lot of excitement and I can't wait for the next installment.
