Every woman should read this book!

By Miss V

I have been a fan of the blog blackgirlsareeasy.com for years...I literally read through every single blog he had written up to that point when I discovered it in one day! I loved his writing style, witty euphemisms, the photographs he used to compliment the subject matters, and the topics he wrote about were so very relatable! I was so impressed I even sent him an e-mail to thank him for creating and consistently maintaining the blog with fresh reads. AND HE RESPONDED!!! My respect went even further and I became a fan (albeit quietly--I don't like to comment on public forums). When I read that he was writing a book, I sent him several e-mails to find out when it was going to be in the bookstores. I could not wait for his book to drop and I knew I would purchase a copy immediately because I dream of writing a book myself and I wanted to support him in the ways that his blog has supported me. I pretty much have memorized most of his blogs, (I reread them frequently as a refresher--I'm a SPARTAN BABY) so I was hoping the book would have even more insight into the male psyche and provide even more advice. I was so impatient waiting on the delivery of my book so I could dig in and enjoy! He did recycle a great deal of the material from his blog and remixed the wording so that he may reach a wider audience, but those are his creative works and not everyone is as obsessed with his blog as me so it will definitely be a fresh read for a lot of consumers! I highly, highly recommend this book for women who are willing to look into themselves and be willing to change the things they do to alienate the men in their lives. To understand a man, you need a man to tell you what the real scoop is and the author did that in such an awesome manner that some guys may be tempted to revoke his man-code card. LOL! But ladies, this website changed my mentality on men and changed my life. I cannot express enough how real the information in this book is and it's been tested and proven by moi for over 2 years. I really hope this book becomes a best seller and the author (who I still refer to as NC-17) has much success and becomes a household name!

If you're tired of trying to think like a man, this book is for you.

I just got the book today, so my rating might be a bit premature, but I have not put it down since it arrived. The advice is raw and real. So, if you're looking for some sugar coated nonsense you might want to look elsewhere. This book is perfect for women like myself who are tired of trying to navigate through the b.s., and with this book I think I've found the GPS to entering the dating world again. What I like most about the book so far is that it is not about becoming someone a man will love but becoming and evolving into the YOU that YOU will love and hence attract the man that will love you too. He actually recognizes the beauty in the female prowess-- a prowess that is very significant. I will edit this review once I finish the book, which by the looks of it won't be long.

Oh, and I must add, I also appreciate that the author is accessible. I emailed him after reading an article on his blog and he actually responded to me with some of the realest and most sincere advice that I have ever been given. Not sure if the author reads these reviews, but I want him to know I'm grateful.

Update:

I finished this book in about a week, but am just now getting around to editing this review. My original review still stands and I will be using this book as reference guide for my future interactions with men. I think my BS radar was there all along, now with this book I know to listen to it.

not what I was looking for

By Brie

Overall the book was cute but not nearly as informative it organized as ho tactics. I would have rather this book as a gift instead of buying it with my own money. Some chapters were alright but overall the focus was not there and instead of giving a how to on the basics of becoming a Spartans more time was spent talking about sticky situations like kids, and exes,etc. I felt as though too much time on past situations didn't allow this book to move in the direction I was expecting.
