SURVIVALIST FAMILY PREPARED AMERICANS FOR A STRONG AMERICA BY JOSEPH FOX, JOE FOX PDF

Just what IS a "survivalist family"? instead of "survivalist family" we could say "prepared family" or talk about "family preparedness" but that is just so politically correct it makes one sick. Just because the media don't like survivalists and therefore vilify them does not mean we have to change our language. For our purposes, the Survivalist Family is defined as, "A multi-generational group of people living in one house (usually consisting of a father, mother and their offspring) who take positive steps as a cohesive group to prepare for possible future negative situations and circumstances beyond their control." This book will guide you through all that is necessary to be prepared for future uncertainty.

Best book for the new prepper

By Rich

This is an incredibly easy-to-follow book, complete with lists and priorities. It emphasizes doing instead of buying and uses real life examples to explain why many tasks are emphasized over others.

At 195 pages it's not difficult to read and it won't provide earth-shattering secrets to make you Rambo overnight. It focuses on the basics that most of us forget because we're too busy whacking at the trees to see the forest. I have a good library and this is the book that everyone should start with. If you are already an experienced prepper then you should still buy two copies of the book. One to make sure you've covered the basics, and the other to give to your friends who still think the government will save them during the next natural disaster.

Practical Family Insurance

By nightwind

Some believe the stereotype of survivalists as gloomy and pessimistic. But who could be more optimistic than someone who believes he can help his family survive the worst of life's possible catastrophes? The author of this book is a God fearing, law abiding and hard working Everyman who sees the dangers and uncertainties in our modern life and has written a book for others like him to help them prepare for whatever is in our future, good or bad. Those who read the title and expect raving paranoia will be disappointed. Mr Fox is a retired Special Forces officer, Boy Scout leader, and community volunteer who has seen bad times come to people around the world, some prepared and some not, and has learned from their example. Those who expect most of the book to be weapon oriented will again be let down. Guns are mentioned briefly, but the book is mostly geared to more mundane but highly practical subjects such as lostproofing your children, valuing skills over "Buying Stuff", food storage, hygiene, tools, evacuation kits, and most important, building a healthy family unit that supports and encourages each other during bad times and good. The information in this book can help every family deal with problems in the news everyday, including floods, hurricanes, extended power outages, blizzards, terrorist attacks, economic disaster and many more. Considering how expensive being unprepared for life's more serious problems can be, this book is a bargain.
