This is a textbook with an enormous amount of information and analysis. There is useful information on redistricting, incumbents, voting percentages, campaign spending, PACS, contributions, party line voting, voters ratings, party unity, polarization, voter knowledge, opinions, at-risk and safe seats and many other political issues. Gary Jacobson has created a one of a kind source for looking at Congressional Elections and related subjects. Every student of US politics should study this book. Every library should have the latest edition.
