Making a Good Confession

More often than not the word confession connotes something negative to the average person. But that same word can be a powerful positive when it comes to the things of God.

For example, if an unbeliever would dare make the simple confession that Jesus is Lord of his life, according to Romans 10:9, and mean that in his heart, he would immediately take himself out of Satan's kingdom and put himself into the Kingdom of God. There is no stronger, more important confession that can ever be made.

In fact, there is more in the Bible about confessing positive things than there is about confessing negative things.

The New Testament was written in the Greek language, and the Greek word for confession is the word homologeō, which means "to agree with" or say what God says about you. The fact is that God says wonderful, life-changing things about His children—those who have confessed Jesus as Lord of their lives. We only have to agree with what He says.

The power of positive confession, in line with God's Word, will—over time—change your circumstances: your living standard, your health, your relationships, your career, and take you to heights you've never dreamed you could reach.

As Apostle Frederick K.C. Price reminds us, "Jesus is the High Priest of our confession. In other words, Jesus is the High Priest of our words."

This book is a great reminder or an introduction that we have what we ...

By DeWayne Wright

I am halfway through the book. It is life changing. These precious truths about confessing God's Word are timeless. I grew up in a Word of Faith home and I learned these truths and have even operated in them for most of my life. This book is a great reminder or an introduction that we have what we say according to Mark 11:23. Throughout the Bible, we see this truth time and time again. Proclaiming the Word of God daily can only help the believer. I dare anyone to read this book and apply it immediately. You will see results because God's Word works. If you believe and obey Mark 11:22-25, you will see the power of it in your life. This is serious business. I know many people preach against confession or the Word of Faith camp but God's Word is God's Word and it doesn't matter who doesn't believe it. I learn from many different camps including the Reformed Camp. I understand that not one camp/group has all the light in the Bible. If we would stick to the Bible and pray and trust the leading of the Holy Spirit then we will walk into the light.

Everything in Christianity is depended on faith. We got saved through faith in the finished work of the cross and we go to heaven by that same faith. We pray in faith and we live by faith. There are many dimensions of the Christian faith. Dr. Price describes the faith to get our needs met both physically and financially. Examine the scriptures in this book and apply them and you will see the results. The key is consistency. Obeying the Word of God will only result in the blessings of the Lord.
