Y TU NO REGRESASTE (SPANISH EDITION) BY MARCELINE LORIDAN-IVENS PDF

A los ochenta y seis años, Marceline Loridan-Ivens ha volcado en esta carta abierta a su padre un cúmulo de sentimientos profundamente arraigados desde su juventud, de los que fue incapaz de desprenderse durante toda una vida. «Tu podrás regresar, porque eres joven, pero yo ya no volveré». Esta simple frase, que Marceline oyó de boca de su padre cuando eran deportados en el mismo tren al campo de Auschwitz-Birkenau en abril de 1943, quedó grabada en su memoria para siempre y es el origen de este relato extraordinario. La dramática lucha de una chica de quince años por sobrevivir en una situación que ha pasado a la Historia como paradigma de la máxima depravación de la que es capaz el hombre, queda plasmada con una voz asombrosamente desprovista de sentimentalismo y autocompasión. / In But You Did Not Come Back, Marceline writes back to her father. The book is a letter to the man she would never know as an adult, to the person whose death overshadowed her whole life. As an advocate for Algerian independence and a documentarian working in China and Vietnam, she ultimately found a vocation, but the loss of her father has never lessened in pain.

Y tu no regresaste

By EDITH CUSNIR

Muy interesante libro. Te pone a pensar porque una persona espera el final de su vida para desahogarse y escribir lo que tenía en su ser desde adolescente. Este genocidio a quien no mato lo marco de por vida.

Four Stars

By Jose G Cervantes G

Another sad testimony of intolerance, what the world needs urgently now.
